Child Burned

Little May Bailey, the 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Bailey, who live on Lincoln Avenue, was seriously burned today by her clothes catching fire from the grate. She ran to the home of Cordelia Hudson, where the family succeeded in putting out the fire, but not until almost her whole body was blistered. Her father and mother were both away from home at the time. Dr. Offutt was called in and dressed the wounds.

He Does Not Want to Live Alone

Daniel Thompson, who lives near Whick, in this county, whose wife left him in September, brought suit for divorce on the grounds of abandonment and adultery. secured his divorce at this term of court and was married again on the 13th of this month to Miss Clay.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of W. B. May against Huey Riley for a piece of land on Bushe-Branch, was decided in favor of Riley.

The suits vs. James D. Graham and Hagins Chapman, brought by their guardians to subject their property for sale for their support, were both dismissed.

Wick deaton was granted a divorce from Cordelia Deaton

Electric Light Plant Completed.

The Electric Light Plant is now under full steam. Having completed the water supply, the Company will start Saturday evening and run all night.
They have only run these evenings until 10 and 11 o'clock for complete testing. We can certainly praise the Company for the excellent light they furnish, as all who have seen it join in saying that Jackson has the best light and neatest constructed plant in the State of Kentucky, as its regulations are absolutely perfect, and our street lights turn our nights into daylight, and in the future it will be a pleasure for our citizens to walk the streets by night and abolish at last the habit of carrying lanterns.

We certainly can congratulate Mr.
Louis Enright, the president of the Company, in securing the services of Mr. H. Luther Leber, for the installing of our electric light plant, as he has proven himself competent in every detail, not only in his work, but in his general management and trying to please our citizens wherever it was in his power.

We certainly wish Mr. Leber success in his future work wherever he may be, for he deserves it.

Mt. Sterling Court.

About 2,000 cattle on the market; quality fair, trade good.

One bunch 1,000 lb steers sold at $3.75, but $3.50 was the price that 1,000 lb cattle sold for. Lighter weight steers sold at $3.25 to $3.40.

Yearling steers sold at $3.25 to $3.40 according to quality; heifers at $2.50 to $3.20, the latter price for a bunch of 900 fat heifers.

Cows at 4 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents Bulls at 2 1/2 to 3 cents.

A large crowd at the pens, with plenty of buyers.

Mules were a bit slow; some fine 16 hand mules offered, but buyers claimed that $175 to $200 was too much.

Some 15 1/2 hand mules at $325 per pair, and 15 hand mules at $100 to $110 small mules $75 to $90.

Horses were in better demand, plugs selling at $80 and $75; fair horses at $85 to $100 and some good horses at $125 to $150.—Advocate both man and beast.

known as the Dan Campbell property, on Main street, completely overhauled same and now offers to the public generally a first class boarding house.

Roy Wilson, of Cow creek, who was recently taken by a Deputy U S Marshall to Richmond, charged with stilling liquor pleaded guilty to the charge last week and took his punishment without trial.

Capt. Dick Barnside has been making it lively for the boys, who have been feeling in home made tobacco.

Wilburn Bowman's beet crop is the wonder of Fish creek neighborhood, particularly to size and weight.
They run in size from a gallon bucket to a half bushel; and weight from 12 pounds he brought your correspondent last week that was 2 1/2 feet long and weight 10 1/2 pounds which was the finest specimen of the beet we ever saw.

He also raised in the same garden 69 gourds from two seeds. Seventy-five of which grew on one vine, the vine run 150 ft. long and branched out 50 feet wide.

held to answer in the Circuit court Saturday for the striking and wound-not little mind and it is feared that the jar in his head will entirely destroy his mind.

Died on head of Sturgeon creek on Thursday last Old [Buck, Creek] Henry Bowman of extreme old age. If he lived to the 234 of December he would have been 90 years old he was one of the old pioneers of Owsley county; was a citizen of this neighborhood when this was Clay county. He married a daughter of old Joe Roberts and reared a large family which survive him, his wife having died many years ago, he belonged to a family that lives to a ripe old age.

There's now living in the knowledge of your correspondent eight of his (Henry Bowman's) cousins and double coun-sins whose ages run from 80 to 95 years old viz. Rev. Cornelius Moore, Elizabeth Trewitt, Matilda Miller and Isabella Bullock. (Your correspondent's mother) all of Jackson county R S Bowman, E W Bowman of Owsley, Aunt Luby Crawford, of Breathitt county, and Rev. James Patton Moore, of Bath county, their ages added, aggregates the sum of 731 years. Can any other of your correspondents give this name of so many persons of some family of kin now living of the above ages?

YALLER BRITCHES

ROBBINS.

A shooting fray took place in this town last Sunday resulting in a man named Gabbard having a leg fractured.
Drinking whisky and gambling is dangerous.

The Board of School Trustees at this place have succeeded in procuring a Mr Wood, of Pennsylvania, who comes well recommended, both as a teacher and a preacher. The entire village seems to be well pleased with the choice of the Board, and hope we will have another good school like Mr Alexander taught last year.

turned to his home in Tennessee Tuesday. We hope that he will decide to make this his home for a year, at least.

G. C. Hubbard was in Jackson Saturday night and returned too late for Sunday School Sunday morning.

Arch Gabbard had a racket with Allen Creech last Sunday evening and was shot in the leg. It is a pretty bad wound, as one bone was broken and skinned up considerably. Several pieces had to be removed but he will not lose the leg.

The log engine is laying up for repairs this week, so the mill is shut down for lack of logs. It takes about 120 logs a day to keep her going.

Mrs. Taylor King is on the sick list.

James Miller is on the sick list.

Miss Julie Hays has finished her school and is at home on the sick list.

James Ward got his shoulder thrown out of place last week. This was the eighth time, and he always has to be anesthetized before it can be replaced. so he has been chloroformed eight times.

TORRENT.

family to Lexington, where he has built a home.

L. & E. last week.

eling man, was in town Tuesday.

News from Flat states that Miss Flossie Shackelford is ill with small pox. Miss Flossie is one of the many trust that her illness will be of short duration, and that she will recover none the worse for her experience.
